Issued 30 January 2023

About this guide

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) explains the financial services provided by RI Advice Group and your adviser (who is authorised through RI Advice Group). It is designed to help you make a fully informed decision about whether you want to use our services.

Please take the time to read this guide carefully. Sound financial advice is based on open communication. Understanding our services and our fees is the cornerstone of this communication.

It's also important that you know who authorises your adviser, the nature of their associations and relationships and what to do if you have a complaint.

If you have further questions, or if there is anything that isn't clear, please talk to your adviser or contact us.

This guide must be accompanied by an Adviser Profile which outlines your adviser's skills, qualifications and the services they are authorised to provide.

Not independent

We are a wholly owned subsidiary of Insignia Financial Ltd (ABN 49 100 103 722) and part of the Insignia Financial Group of companies (Insignia Financial Group). The Insignia Financial Group is an issuer of financial products, some of which are included in our Approved Product List. In addition, we may receive commission on life insurance products as explained in this FSG under the heading 'How we are paid'. For these reasons, we do not refer to ourselves or our advice as independent, impartial or unbiased.

About us

Helping you make the most of life

At its heart, good financial advice is all about making the most of life – helping you to decide what you want to achieve and setting the financial strategies to help you do it. Everyone has different goals in life, but for most of us, finances play an important role in reaching them.

That's where we can help. Since 1979 advisers with RI Advice Group (formerly RetireInvest) have helped thousands of Australians to create, grow and protect their wealth.

Your adviser provides professional advice to help you achieve what you want out of life. RI Advice practices are locally owned, employing highly qualified financial advisers. Each adviser has a legal obligation and an ethical duty to act with integrity and in the best interests of their clients. Your adviser is a self-employed practice owner or employed by the practice. The Adviser Profile provided with this guide has specific information about your adviser.

Your adviser, or the practice they work for, has chosen to partner with RI Advice Group, who provides your adviser with research, training, compliance, technical and operational support. RI Advice Group is responsible for any financial service your adviser provides on its behalf.

RI Advice is a wholly owned subsidiary of Insignia Financial Ltd (Insignia Financial Group) which is listed on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX: IFL). Our relationship with Insignia Financial allows us the opportunity to engage with the Group's shared services and support teams to provide great outcomes for our clients.

Products and services we provide

Our network of advisers provide a range of financial services including investing, superannuation, retirement and insurance. Specific information about the services your adviser is authorised to provide and their qualifications are contained in the attached Adviser Profile.

Important documents you can expect to receive

When your adviser provides personal financial advice for the first time, you will generally be given a Statement of Advice (SoA). The SoA sets out your personal advice, the basis on which it is given, the cost of the advice, and information about any associations or relationships that could influence the advice.

If you require further advice at a later time, providing your circumstances have not changed significantly since your previous SoA, your adviser may be able to provide the further advice verbally or via a shorter Record of Advice (RoA). If you are given verbal advice, your adviser will document the discussion and a copy of this record can be made available to you on request. If you are given further advice and your circumstances have changed significantly since your previous SoA, you will generally be given another SoA.

To help you make an informed decision about a financial product, you will generally be given a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) which outlines the product features and costs in detail. In certain circumstances, there is no requirement to provide a PDS (including, for example, where you already have one).

If you ask your adviser to undertake a transaction without receiving advice from that adviser, you may be given a letter confirming your instructions and disclosing any costs payable by you in relation to that transaction.

Our Approved Products List

Our Approved Products List (APL) is a list of what we consider to be sound quality, fully researched products, but doesn't include all possible products available in the market. Only products and services that have been examined by our experienced research team are placed on our APL.

When selecting products for you, your adviser is generally limited to the range of investment products and a selection of 12 insurance providers on the APL.

Your adviser will first source from the APL before providing any recommendations. They will only recommend a product or service after considering its appropriateness in relation to your individual objectives, financial situation, needs and best interests. Where your strategy requires products and services other than those on the APL to act in your best interests, the Insignia Financial research team will be consulted and we will seek to find an alternative solution.

The APL includes products issued and platforms operated by related companies including, IOOF Investment Management Limited, Questor Financial Services Limited, IOOF Investment Services Ltd, Navigator Australia Limited, Oasis Fund Management Limited, OnePath Custodians Pty Ltd, OnePath Funds Management Limited, IOOF Ltd, MLC Investments Limited, NULIS Nominees (Australia) Limited, Managed Portfolio Services Limited, Australian Ethical Investment Limited, Antares Capital Partners Limited.

These related companies will receive fees and benefits as disclosed in the relevant document if you invest with them.

Important relationships and other benefits

In addition to the related companies listed above (under the heading 'Our Approved Products List') you should also be aware of the following relationships and benefits that we may receive. Any payments noted below are not an additional cost to you and will only be made to the extent permitted by law. Any other arrangements you need to be aware of will be set out in the Adviser Profile attached to this document. Arrangements that are relevant to the advice being provided to you will also be disclosed in your written advice.

Product and service provider benefits

RI Advice Group may receive sponsorship payments from product and service providers to fund technical and professional development training for our advisers. Our practice owners or advisers may also apply for and may qualify to receive commercial terms on a range of banking products and services such as interest rates and limited recourse terms.

Distribution fees

Related companies of RI Advice Group may receive fees for acting as the distributor of financial products which your adviser may recommend. Any fee is paid by the product issuer or administrator of the product out of its own funds. Neither your adviser nor RI Advice Group receive any of these fees.

Advisory fees

Product providers may pay advisory fees to RI Advice Group or an investment management entity associated with RI Advice Group. This fee is for the provision of portfolio management advisory services where RI Advice Group model portfolios are utilised via managed accounts or separately managed accounts. In the event of this occurring, the fee is calculated as a percentage, likely to be up to 0.15% of the managed account or separately managed account portfolio balance. Your adviser will not receive any of this fee.

Referral partners

Your adviser may have referral relationships with third parties. These third parties may include accountants, mortgage brokers, general insurance brokers, solicitors, real estate agents and other third parties who specialise in a specific field. Any referral arrangements you need to be aware of and specific details of any referral payments we may receive will be set out in the 'Important relationships' section of the Adviser Profile attached to this document. Referral arrangements that are relevant to any advice being provided to you will also be disclosed in your written advice. Where you are referred to a third party (including to other financial advisers) by your adviser, neither your adviser nor RI Advice Group approve or endorse their advice and won't be liable for the provision of advice and services provided by the third party. You must assess the merits of their advice in the light of your own circumstances and objectives.

Referrals to a third party

Where you are referred to a third party (including to other financial advisers) by your adviser, your adviser does not receive any payment for that referral. We also do not approve or endorse their advice. You must assess the merits of their advice in the light of your own circumstances and objectives.

Associated businesses

Your adviser may have associations with other related businesses, such as an accountancy firm.

Other payments

We keep a full register of any benefits received by advisers of between $100 to $300. By law, your adviser is not permitted to receive benefits in excess of $300 per year from a product issuer. In addition, RI Advice Group keeps a register of any other non-monetary benefits your adviser may receive in relation to education, training, technology support or software that is relevant to the provision of financial advice. If you would like a copy of either register, please ask your adviser and one will be made available to you.

How we are paid

We receive remuneration from:

- Advice and service fees paid by you (fee for service)
- Commissions from insurance providers
- Other payments and benefits as outlined above under the heading 'Important relationships and other benefits'

As the licensee, RI Advice Group collects all fees and commissions which are paid on to your adviser's practice. The Adviser Profile explains how your adviser is paid. RI Advice Group receives a licensee fee from your adviser's practice of up to $165,000 per annum, which is in part based on remuneration paid to your adviser's practice.

Advice and service fees paid by you

Before providing personal advice, your adviser will agree the fees and payment options with you. These fees will be based on your individual circumstances, the complexity of your situation and the time it takes to prepare your personal financial advice. Fees and commissions that are relevant to the advice being provided will also be disclosed in the written advice provided to you.

The types of fees you may be asked to pay can include:

- Statement of Advice (SoA) fee – a fee to gather information, analyse your situation and prepare your SoA.
- Implementation fee – a fee to implement the recommendations contained in your SoA.
- Review service fee – a fee for the provision of review services if you enter into a service agreement with your adviser.

Your adviser may also charge other fees for the ad hoc provision of advice or services, including if you instruct your adviser to complete a transaction on your behalf such as buying or selling specific financial products.

About Rosie

Award-winning Financial Adviser Rosie Copp takes great joy in getting to know her clients (especially multiple generations of one family), understanding their goals and passions, then working collaboratively to implement appropriate financial strategies. Her clients know they are in empathetic and safe hands thanks to Rosie's superb intuition - refined during her 27 years' experience in financial services and advisory roles here and in London.

Rosie understands the importance of getting started early as much as the importance of taking care of those who are unable to help themselves. "To me, financial advice is a lifelong critical element of your success and security; laying the foundation in your early years, reaping the rewards as you age, then taking comfort that you will have access to the best care available when you can no longer live independently."

Rosie is also recognised as the 'go-to' accredited Aged Care expert on the Central Coast. Attending to her mother's physical and financial well-being during her transition into assisted living opened her eyes to how much potential there was to make a lasting, positive impact for people through good advice informed by compassion and understanding. ## Part 2 Adviser Profile

Kristy Coulin

This adviser profile forms an essential part of the Financial Service Guide (FSG). The FSG is not complete without it.

Introducing your financial adviser

Kristy Coulin is an Authorised Representative of RI Advice Group Pty Ltd AFSL 238429. Kristy is an employee of Coastal Advice Group Pty Ltd which is a Corporate Authorised Representative of RI Advice Group Pty Ltd.

Authorised Representative Number: 1263235
Corporate Authorised Representative Number: 1280080
Adviser profile issue date: 1 February 2023

About Kristy

Former Client Service and Office Manager turned award-winning Financial Adviser, Kristy Coulin has accumulated a wealth of experience from her 19 years in the Financial Planning industry. It's this depth of experience that serves her well in her present role as Retirement Financial Adviser. "I've been supporting clients for years, walking them through things and taking care of all the paperwork." It was a natural progression for her to assist in the financial guidance of clients more directly.

For Kristy, who is innately attentive to the needs of others, a big appeal is the benefit she can help bring to people's lives. Kristy takes the time to really determine what people want to achieve, and what their starting position is. It might be helping them assess their eligibility for the pension, restructuring their super for better outcomes, or downsizing strategies.

She derives great satisfaction in making people content about what's happening and involved in the process. "With many people, particularly pre-retirees and Centrelink aged care individuals, they just want someone to simplify their lives and take away the stress," says Kristy. "I'm not interested in bamboozling people with the technicalities."

About Janelle

Financial Adviser Janelle Kirk is clearly passionate about supporting people to realise their financial goals.

With more than 50 years in the finance industry: including over two decades in the banking sector and almost 40 years as a financial adviser, Janelle has built quality relationships with her clients, some becoming long-lasting friends. While working within the banking industry Janelle identified the need for financial planning services, especially for the ageing population.

"As I moved with them through life, I recognised there were a lot of pitfalls for those who couldn't see what could be done to make the most of their retirement - what I usually call 'to retire smiling'."

Wanting to embrace a holistic approach to supporting people with their financial future Janelle pursued further study to qualify as a Certified Financial Planner, and holds a Masters in Financial Planning and Graduate Certificate of Business Research. As part of the CAG team, Janelle provides advice in a range of areas including pre-retirement and retirement planning, and specialist advice in aged care.

"My approach may be different depending on where a person is in their life journey. It really is about listening to them to learn what is important to them and what they want to achieve. When Janelle is asked 'when' someone should engage with a financial planner, her advice is - "the earlier you start the better".

Introducing your financial adviser

Matthew Simpson-Foster is an Authorised Representative of RI Advice Group Pty Ltd AFSL 238429. Matthew is a Director of Coastal Advice Group Pty Ltd which is a Corporate Authorised Representative of RI Advice Group Pty Ltd.

Authorised Representative Number: 443661
Corporate Authorised Representative Number: 1280080
Adviser profile issue date: 1 February 2023

About Matthew

A long-standing passion to help others realise their financial goals drives Matthew's mission at CAG. "Seeing clients start to achieve their financial independence inspires me," he says. "It starts with listening, working to their agenda, not our own."

Matthew's easy-going personality is backed by significant experience, starting with corporate superannuation back in 2000. From there, Matt spent five years as pricing manager at one of Europe's biggest hedge funds, and six years in super and insurance for some of Australia's largest financial services providers.

The experience made Matthew aware of just how vulnerable a lot of people were when it came to their financial security. "I saw a lot of insurance claims where people hadn't been given the right advice, and had cancelled their insurance," he recalls. "It made me want to do more to help people build and protect their wealth."

At the urging of long-time friend Daniel Brown, Matthew decided the time was right to leverage his broad experience and move into the financial planning space. CAG was a natural fit. "We look at advice very differently to other outfits, and I think that's one of our advantages," says Matthew.
